Chief of Police

Re: Interview of Eva Grant by Mr. Joe Long of Radio Station KLIF

Sir:

The following is a taped interview with Eva Grant, sister of Jack Ruby. This interview was conducted by Mr. Joe Long of Radio Station KLIF on Sunday, November 24, 1963:

"I want it known by everyone that I do not blame the Dallas Police Department for what happened Sunday morning. Chief Curry and his men did not neglect their duty. I honestly believe my brother had got hold of a press pass which got him into the Police Department. This criticism of the Police Department is uncalled for and they must not be held in blame. My brother was grieving so, and I feel it got the best of him. I know; he was with me a great deal Friday and Saturday. He was very upset about the death of the President. When he came face to face with Oswald, he must have thought this man had done him some personal harm and I believe my brother became insane suddenly. Otherwise this never could have been done. Please, please, don't blame the Police Department."

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. Sawyer
Inspector

Dallas Police Department
